Investment.

(4) A University Provident Fund Account shall be opened in Dhaka University Campus Branch of the Sonali Bank in Dhaka to which the total deduction from the salaries of the University staff, as well as the corresponding contributions from the University under paragraph (2), shall be credited at the beginning of each month. Any cash balance of the fund in excess of Tk.50,000/00 shall be invested by the Treasurer before the end of each month in such securities as approved by the Finance Committee and the Syndicate and as are approved under section 20 of the Trusts Act, 1882. All investments and securities shall be held jointly by the Vice-Chancellor and the Treasurer.

Rate of Interest.

(5) The rate of interest shall be decided by the Syndicate from time to time provided that the rate of interest shall not be less than the Bank rate.

(6) Interest under paragraph (5) will be allowed for each calendar month upon the minimum balance of the subscriber's account between the close of the 4th day and end of the month. It will be added to the principal at the end of the University financial year (June 30) except when the account is to be finally closed.

(7) Each subscriber shall receive from the University Treasurer not later than October 15 of each year a statement of his account showing the opening balance, the deposits and withdrawal during the financial year ending June 30, and the closing balance after the addition of interest allowed under paragraph (6). 'Subscribers are required to satisfy themselves as to the correctness of these statements and unless errors in them are brought to the notice of the Treasurer within three months from the date of their receipt any sums not including in the account will lapse to the University.

(8) In the event of a subscriber resigning his employment after less than five years service or being dismissed, the contribution by the University as well as the interest that has accrued on the same shall lapse into the general University Fund:

Provided that a subscriber, who has served the University for three years or more and resigns with approval of the University, shall be entitled to the University's contribution.

(9) A subscriber to the University Provident Fund who is on leave with allowances must continue to subscribe during leave unless exempted from doing so by the Syndicate under such conditions as may be prescribed by them in each particular case.

(10) (a) Temporary advances of loans may be granted to subscribers from the sum to their credit in the Provident Fund under conditions to be prescribed by the Provident Fund Rules.

(b) A subscriber may be allowed to pay life Insurance premiums out of his Provident Fund money to the limit of his own subscription to the Fund with interest under conditions prescribed by the Ordinance.

(11) The deposit and contribution, less the amount outstanding in respect of advances or loans granted under paragraph (10)(a) with interest thereon at the credit of subscriber shall be payable in full and shall only be finally withdrawn—

- (a) on the depositor ceasing to be a servant of the University; or
- (b) on his death:

Provided that in both cases sanction of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor shall first be obtained by the Treasurer before any payment is made.

* (12) Each subscriber shall as soon as possible after his joining the Fund, be called by the Treasurer to fill up a declaration form approved by the Syndicate showing how he wishes the amount of his accumulation to be disposed of on his death.

(13) For the purpose of the Statute only the following survivors of a subscriber shall be held to constitute his family :—

- (i) widow or widows ;
- (ii) children; and
- (iii) widow, or widows and children of a deceased son.

An adopted child shall be considered to be a child within the meaning of this Statute when, under the personal law of the subscriber, adoption is legally recognized as conferring the status of a natural child but not otherwise, if doubts arise in an individual case, the Treasurer shall refer the matter to the Syndicate and their decision shall be final for the purpose of this Statute. A declaration in favour of an adopted child is made at the subscriber's risk and can be challenged at any time.

(14) A subscriber may in his declaration specify the distribution of the accumulation.

* (Amended vide Senate dated 07.12.1985)

(15) Any Form of Declaration submitted by a subscriber is revocable at any time. A fresh declaration shall be operative only on being received by the Treasurer. On a subscriber's marriage or remarriage any declaration already submitted by him will forthwith become null and void and, unless a revised Form of Declaration is received, the amount of his accumulations will be dealt with under clause (b), or clause (d) of paragraph (19) as the case may be.

(16) If minors are nominated in a Form of Declaration the person or persons to whom sums intended for their benefit are to be paid should be stated in the Form of Declaration.

(17) In the event of the subscriber having a family as defined in paragraph (13), he is not permitted in his Form of Declaration, to leave the amount of his accumulations or any part of it to any one outside his family.

(18) Where a Form of Declaration purports to leave money otherwise than to a member or members of a subscriber's family, the Treasurer shall call upon the subscriber to state whether he has a family, and if it is found that he has one, the Form of Declaration shall not be accepted. A subscriber who has a family has absolute discretion regarding the distribution of the amount at his credit at the time of his death among the members of that family. He may exclude any one or more of them in favour of another or others to them, and the manner in which the distribution is to be made among them are also within his absolute discretion.

(19) On a subscriber's death before retirement, the amount shall be disposed of as follows :—

- (a) It or such portion of it as may be specified in an accepted Form of Declaration, will be divided among all or any member of his family in accordance with the terms of the Declaration. If the Declaration relates to a portion only of the amount, the balance will be distributed in the manner described in clause (b). If the declaration does not state the person or persons to whom the sum intended for the benefit of a minor is to be paid, the sum due shall be paid to the minor's legal guardian to be used for the minor's benefit, or, failing a legal guardian, in such person or persons as the Treasurer may consider to be the proper person or persons to receive it on the minor's behalf.

- (b) Where a subscriber leaves a family, but no Form of Declaration in favour of any member or members or the family has been received from him, the amount shall be distributed, among his family, except that sons of a deceased son, who have attained legal majority and married daughters of a deceased son, whose husbands are alive shall be excluded from participation.

The division among the persons entitled shall be in equal shares, except that the widow or widows and the child or children of any deceased son shall take equally between them only the share which that son would have taken had he survived the subscriber.

Any sum due to a minor shall be paid to the minor's legal guardian to be used for the minor's benefit, or, failing a legal guardian to such person or persons as the Treasurer may consider to be the proper person or persons to receive it on the minor's behalf.

- (c) If there be no party to receive the amount under clauses (a) and (b) it will be divided among or paid to such person or persons (whether related to the subscriber or not) as may be specified in an accepted Form of Declaration. If the Form of Declaration relates to a portion only of the amount, the balance shall be distributed in the manner described in clause (d).
- (d) If there be no party entitled to receive under the foregoing clauses (a), (b) and (c), the amount will be paid to the subscriber's legal representative or such other person or persons as may be determined by a Civil Court, competent to pass orders in this respect :

Provided that if the sum remaining at the credit of the subscriber does not exceed Tk. 500.00 it may be paid to such person or persons as the Treasurer may consider to be the proper person or persons to receive it.

Note— 1. A husband may make a written application for the exclusion of his wife from participation under clause (b) if she has been judicially separated from him. In the absence of such an application the widow will retain her rights under clause (b).

Note— 2. When a person named In a Form of Declaration dies before the subscriber, the Declaration, will, in the absence of a direction to the contrary, in the Form of Declaration, become null and void in respect of that person, but that person only and his or her share will be distributed in the manner described in clause (b) or clause (d) as the case may be.

Note— 3. The above two notes apply mutatis mutandis to married women who are subscribers to the Provident Fund.

(20) If the Treasurer receives notice that a Will has been left by a deceased subscriber, which purports to dispose of his accumulations in the Fund or any part of them, he shall, before making any payment, refer the matter to the Syndicate for decision.

(21) The University shall not be bound by, or recognize, any assignment or encumbrance executed or created which affects the disposal of the accumulations of a subscriber who dies before retirement.

(22) The ledger and other accounts of the Provident Fund shall be kept by the University Treasurer in a form approved by the Syndicate.

(23) The Provident Fund Accounts shall be audited annually by a Government Auditor together with the other accounts of the University.

(24) The securities of the Provident Fund shall be assessed by the Treasurer at the market value and after such assessment has been certified by the Government Auditor, the University shall, if necessary, subscribe from the Reserve Fund of the Provident Fund such an amount as is required to make the amount available for distributing equivalent to the liabilities to the subscribers. If the Government Auditor certifies that the amount standing to the credit of the Fund is in excess of the liabilities, an amount equal to the amount of the excess balance shall be transferred from the Provident Fund to the Reserve Fund of the Provident Fund of the University.

A Reserve Fund Account of the Provident Fund shall be opened with the Dhaka University Campus Branch of the Sonali Bank.

(25) Subject to the consent of the Syndicate and the Subscriber concerned in each case, this Statute shall apply to the amounts accumulated in the names of the members of the staff.

(26) Subject to the consent of the Syndicate and the subscriber concerned in each case employee migrating to this University from the other recognized University shall be permitted to transfer the accumulations in his Provident Fund Account from the later University.

(27) All questions of interpretation of this Statute shall be decided by the Syndicate, whose decision shall be final.

Ex-officio member on leave.

32. (1) If a teacher or an officer of the University who is an ex-officio member of any authority or other body of the University takes leave and another person is appointed to officiate in his place, such officiating person shall be deemed to be the member of such authority or body during the period of such absence on leave in place of the permanent incumbent of such office. If no one is appointed to officiate in place of such teacher or officer he shall continue as a member of such authority or body for a period of six weeks only.

For the purpose of this paragraph a House Tutor-in-Charge shall not be regarded as an officiating Provost unless specially appointed as such.

(2) If a teacher or an officer of the University who is appointed by name to be a member of any authority or other body of the University takes leave for a period exceeding 90 days the membership of such teacher or officer shall cease. If the period of leave does not exceed 90 days he shall continue to be a member of such authority or body :

Provided that a Principal nominated by the Chancellor to be a member of the Syndicate shall continue to be a member of the Syndicate when on leave.

Appointment of Advisory Board.

33. There shall be an Appointment Advisory Board to be appointed by the Syndicate to assist students of the University in securing employment through the office of the Director of Guidance and Employment Bureau.

(16) Every voter shall have twenty five votes. No voter shall cast more than one vote in favour of one candidate.

(17) A voter who desires to vote shall record his vote on the ballot paper by putting a cross mark (?) in the space prescribed for such marks on it.

(18) Voting at each centre shall take place under the direction, control and supervision of the Chief Presiding Officer/ Presiding Officer at such hours as the Vice-Chancellor may direct on the date fixed for voting in the notice.

Provided that the Chief Presiding Officer/Presiding Officer shall have power to change the date or time or both of Polling of his centre in any special circumstances if he so deems fit.

(19) Voting shall be by secret ballot, and precautions shall be taken that the voter gets an unmarked ballot paper and then marks the ballot paper, so that the marking cannot be observed by any other person, and after marking it he shall fold it and put it in ballot box provided for the purpose.

(20) A ballot paper shall be invalid if?

- (a) a voter signs his name or writes any word or makes any mark excepting the cross mark (X) on it, in the space prescribed for such mark on the voting paper by which it becomes identifiable;
- (b) no vote is cast ;
- (c) the number of votes cast thereon exceeds the number of candidates to be elected.

Provided that, if one of the marks is so placed as to render it uncertain as to which candidate it is intend to apply, the mark concerned but not the whole ballot paper shall be invalid on that account.

(21) Counting of votes of each centre shall be held at Dhaka after the polling is over at all centers. The Vice-Chancellor shall appoint as many scrutineers as are required for counting of votes and for consolidation of counting of votes of all centers at Dhaka.

Provided that in case of necessity the Chief Presiding Officer/Presiding Officer concerned can also appoint as many scrutineers as are required during the course of counting of votes and for consolidation of counting of votes at Dhaka.

(22) The Presiding Officer shall prepare a report of the votes received in each centre and shall put the used ballot papers and the report thereof in the cover supplied from the Registers' Office, close it with gum or adhesive tape and will seal it with gala and put his signature on the packet/packets and collect the signature of the polling officer/polling officers. The Presiding Officer then put the seal gala packet/packets in a separate cover and close it with gum or adhesive tape and also collect the signature of the candidates present or their authorised agents or in absence some of the voters present and put his own signature and signature of the polling officer/officers and carry the packet/packets to the University and will hand over the same to the Registrar or any other officer of the University authorised to receive the same.

The ballot papers as well as the report shall be preserved in sealed packets for the term of the members who are being elected.

(23) The Chief Presiding Officer/Presiding Officer shall have full powers to dispose of all points raised in the course of the polling and his decision shall be regarded as final in the respective centre.

(24) The Vice-Chancellor or his nominee who is the Chief Presiding Officer shall declare elected twenty five candidates securing, in order of succession, the highest number of valid votes:

Provided that if at any election two or more candidates secure the same number of votes the choice between such candidates shall be determined by the Vice-Chancellor or his nominee (Chief Presiding Officer) by drawing of lot. The method of lot shall be decided by the Vice-Chancellor or his nominee (Chief Presiding Officer). This provision will however apply only in the case of the twenty-fifth position.

(25) The results of the election will be notified on the notice board of the Office of the Registrar and in at least two dailies published from Dhaka by the Registrar under order of the Vice-Chancellor.

(26) No vacancy caused due to any reason whatsoever shall be filled up during the same term for which the person, whose seat has fallen vacant, was elected to the Senate.

(27) No election shall be called in question unless final result is declared and except by an election petition presented in accordance with the following provision :

- (a) An election petition may be filled within fifteen days from the date on which the final results of the election is declared.
- (b) An election petition will lie only when any irregularity has materially affected the election results.
- (c) Save as otherwise provided the Vice-Chancellor shall dispose of an election petition.
- (d) The election petition must be submitted to the Registrar who shall supply a copy of the same to each of the contesting candidates fixing a date for filling a written statement if any within twenty days.
- (e) After the receipt of the written statement the Vice-Chancellor shall fix a date within ten days for disposal and decide after perusing the records and hearing the parties concerned by a tribunal constituted by him.
